To provide hope for the street children of Honduras. Hope that allows them to grow intellectually, emotionally, physically, socially, and spiritually.

“With positive attitudes and open minds, we will immerse ourselves in the local culture and the lives of the boys for whom Amigos de Jesus serves as a safe haven.”

“We promise to serve in steadfast commitment to the principles for which Villanova University stands: truth, unity, and love, while striving to make a difference in the lives of those less fortunate than ourselves.”
